

I own a trucking company and my drivers rely on XM Radio to be able to obtain information out on the road. The usual radio stations are not strong enough or fade in and out, to be available in every spot of the US. It seems our freedom of choice is become something of the past. What is happening to our rights?